Re: Notice of Ex Parte Presentation: WC Docket No. 11-42; WC Docket No. 03-109;
CC Docket No. 96-45; WC Docket No. 12-23.

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On Tuesday, June 12, 2012, Jessica Gonzalez and Michael Scurato, of the National Hispanic Media Coalition ("NHMC") and Matt Wood, of Free Press, met with James Bachtell, Lisa Hone, and Cara E. Voth of the Wireline Competition Bureau to discuss a number of issues pertinent to the E-rate program.

Representatives from NHMC and Free Press advocated for the inclusion of certain teacher and librarian staffing and labor costs on the E-rate Eligible Services List. Mr. Scurato also expressed support for certain proposals put forth by the Commission in a Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, in the above referenced dockets, that could allow certain funding for digital literacy training to be administered through the E-rate program. Mr. Scurato referenced earlier filings made by NHMC, in which NHMC suggested that the proposed digital literacy program be used to provide funding for schools and libraries to staff and train existing librarians and teachers so that they can help provide more meaningful Internet access to students and other community members.

I submit this letter today pursuant to Section 1.1206(b) of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 1.1206(b). Please contact me should you have any questions regarding this submission.

Respectfully submitted,

Michael J. Scurato, Policy Counsel
